REVIEW:

This would have to have been my best purchase for travelling. After wearing daily for 6 weeks they are now as comfortable as the day I bought them and are still going strong.

A fashionable alternative to sneakers they look great with leggings, jeans and shorts whilst maintaining comfort throughout the day and night.

Suitable for walking great distances.

Pros:

- Comfortable
- Look nice with all types of clothing
- Feet can breathe
- pack up light and take up minimal room
- easy to slide off on the plane

Cons:

- a bit expensive for a single trip so continue to wear once you are home
- wear them in before travel as the back can dig in a little on initial wear
